

2018 Emerging Leaders Institute

The Association for Continuing Higher Education invites applicants for the 2018 Emerging Leaders Institute Cohort.

June 20th - 22nd • Loyola University • Chicago, IL

Institute Goals:

The ACHE Emerging Leaders Institute is designed to provide professional development and leadership training to continuing education professionals. Institute participants will:

- Identify and refine their professional goals;
- Receive one on one feedback from higher education leaders regarding their career trajectory and pathways toward achieving their professional goals;
- Learn about trends and transformation on the horizon for higher education;
- Engage in intensive leadership training for higher education professionals;
- Network with other emerging continuing education leaders from across the country;

Tuition: $1600.00

Application Process

Please submit the following application materials to be considered for membership in the 2018 ACHE ELI Cohort:

- A 250-500 word letter of introduction, providing background. Please include a short description of your professional and educational background, a description of your short-term and long-term professional goals, and a personal philosophy on higher education leadership.
- A resume or CV
- A letter of recommendation. Recommendations may come from an ACHE colleague, your direct supervisor, or your college/university president, provost, or dean.
- A letter of support to finance participation in ELI from your institution or a letter stating your intention to personally finance participation.

SUBMISSIONS

Submit application materials online. For the submission link contact Dr. Amy Johnson at johnsoad@etsu.edu. Applications are due by May 1, 2018.

Please direct questions about the institute to Dr. Dorothy Williams dwilliam@regis.edu or Dr. Amy Johnson johnsoad@etsu.edu